

Immunization Submission

The Direct Project

This demonstration will explain how the Direct Project technical standards and services are being used today to securely transport immunization data from Hennepin County Medical Center to the Minnesota Department of Health. To show the flexibility and possibilities of the Direct Project, an immunization submission workflow will be shown along with an optional ability to easily and securely send a copy of the immunization to a patient's Direct-enabled personal health record.

